

CHEW 2014 – PROGRAMME

Health, Environment and Welfare in a Changing China

Date: 30 April 2014 Time: 10:30 am – 5:30 pm

Venue: E P Abraham Lecture Theatre, Green Templeton College, University of Oxford

10:30 am Welcome and introduction

10:45 am HEALTH panel

- Therese Hesketh, University College London, Impact of Demographic Change in China
- Tara Garnett, The Food Climate Research Network, University of Oxford, 'Transformations in China's food system: the implications for nutrition, health and the environment'
- Anna Lora-Wainwright, University of Oxford (S), Doing anthropology of cancer in rural China.

12:15 pm Lunch

1:00 pm Keynote speech

Michael Hathaway, Simon Fraser University: The Emergence of Global Environmentalism in China

1:30 pm ENVIRONMENT panel

- Sam Geall, chinadialogue.net, Green movements in China,
- Lei Zhou, Oriental Danology Institute, Vivideath: Mapping Chinese Rivers on the Wane (S)
- Guy Leung, King's College London, A Supply Chain Approach to China's Natural Gas Transition: Actors and Institutions,

3:00 pm Coffee break

3:30 pm WELFARE panel

- Chengzhi Yi, East China University of Political Science and Law, How Public Service Resources Are Allocated in Metropolitan Rural-urban Fringe Zones
- Tim Pringle, SOAS, Labour in China: From a 'moment' to a movement?
- Daniel Morley: The Chinese working class in revolution from 1911 to today

5:00 pm Concluding remarks

Isabel Hilton OBE

5:30 pm Wine reception